

Psalm 107 Verses 23-30

LOCH BROOM

Who go to sea in ships, and in great waters trading be,
Within the deep these men God's works
and his great wonders see.

For he commands, and forth in haste
the stormy tempest flies,
Which makes the sea with rolling waves
aloft to swell and rise.

They mount to heav'n, then to the depths
they do go down again;
Their soul doth faint and melt away
with trouble and with pain.

They reel and stagger like one drunk,
at their wit's end they be:
Then they to God in trouble cry,
who them from straits doth free.

The storm is chang'd into a calm
at his command and will;
So that the waves, which rag'd before,
now quiet are and still.

Then are they glad, because at rest
and quiet now they be:
So to the haven he them brings,
which they desir'd to see.

Much of Alasdair's time in the US from the start was in teaching young American pipers to become better players. He generously gave important instruction to a number of young US pipers which enabled them to successfully compete in international contests. As a tribute to Alasdair, the Balmoral School of Piping & Drumming establishes a designated scholarship fund, the "Alasdair Gillies Memorial Scholarship," for talented American teenage pipers. When making your donation to the Balmoral School please designate your donation to be applied to this fund. www.balmoralschool.org
